

The Frances K. Widmann Service Award

CALL FOR NOMINATIONS

The Frances K. Widmann Service Award honors those members who have given generously of their time and energy in support of NCABB. The award is named in honor of Dr. Frances Widmann, an original member of NCABB, whose life's work reflected the mission of NCABB. Involved in education throughout her career, she trained laboratory technologists and pathologists at UNC and Duke, and shared her love of knowledge with the rest of North Carolina's blood bankers through NCABB, holding multiple NCABB offices, including President. Dr. Widmann generously volunteered with the AABB as well. She edited the eighth and ninth editions of the AABB Technical Manual, and received the AABB's John Elliot Memorial Award.

Please consider nominating a deserving member of NCABB for the Frances K. Widmann Service award. If you would like to see someone you know receive the recognition they deserve, please submit a letter or complete the form below and send by email to Rebecca Bullock at Rebecca.Bullock@quotientbd.com or by US mail to NCABB, Inc., P.O. Box 34213, Charlotte, NC 28234.

Deadline is August 15, 2016.

The winner will be announced and the award presented at the NCABB Business meeting, which is held during the Annual Fall Meeting, September 18-20, 2016.

The nominee should:

1. Exemplify service to the NCABB.
2. Assist other NCABB members.
3. Maintain a professional attitude.
4. Demonstrate integrity.
5. Cooperate and interact with other organizations.
